SBA Offers Disaster Assistance to California Small Businesses Economically Impacted by the Tamarack Fire Virtual Recovery Center to Open Friday, Aug. 27

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – The U.S. Small Business Administration is offering low-interest federal disaster loans for working capital to small businesses economically impacted by the Tamarack Fire that began July 4, 2021, SBA Administrator Isabella Casillas Guzman announced today. SBA acted under its own authority to declare a disaster in response to a request SBA received from Gov. Gavin Newsom’s designated representative, Mark S. Ghilarducci, director of the Governor’s Office of Emergency Services on Aug. 24, 2021.

The disaster declaration makes SBA assistance available in Alpine, Amador, Calaveras, El Dorado, Mono and Tuolumne counties in California; and Douglas County in Nevada.

“SBA is strongly committed to providing the most effective and customer-focused response possible to assist California’s small businesses with federal disaster loans. We will be swift in our efforts to help these small businesses recover from the financial impacts of this disaster,” said Guzman.

In consideration of the public health concerns due to the Coronavirus pandemic, beginning Friday, Aug. 27, SBA will establish a Virtual Business Recovery Center to answer questions about SBA’s disaster loan program, explain the application process and help each individual complete their electronic loan application.

“Small nonfarm businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture and most private nonprofit organizations of any size may qualify for Economic Injury Disaster Loans of up to $2 million to help meet financial obligations and operating expenses which could have been met had the disaster not occurred,” said Director Tanya N. Garfield of SBA’s Disaster Field Operations Center-West.

“These loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable and other bills that can’t be paid because of the disaster’s impact. Disaster loans can provide vital economic assistance to small businesses to help overcome the temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing,” Garfield added.

Eligibility is based on the financial impact of the disaster only and not on any actual property damage. These loans have an interest rate of 2.88 percent for small businesses and 2 percent for private nonprofit organizations with terms up to 30 years and are restricted to small businesses without the financial ability to offset the adverse impact without hardship.

The San Joaquin Delta College Small Business Development Center is offering free, personalized counseling to help affected businesses in their recovery. Businesses may contact Director Nate McBride by emailing SBDC@deltacollege.edu, or calling (209) 954-5089, or by visiting the SBDC office at 56 South Lincoln Street, Stockton, CA 95203, Monday - Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Applicants may apply online, receive additional disaster assistance information and download applications at <https://disasterloanassistance.sba.gov/>. Applicants may also call SBA’s Customer Service Center at (800) 659-2955 or email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance. Individuals who are deaf or hard-of-hearing may call (800) 877-8339. Completed applications should be mailed to U.S. Small Business Administration, Processing and Disbursement Center, 14925 Kingsport Road, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

The deadline to apply for economic injury is May 26, 2022.
